

femme Fatale Punch

Description

This combination of sparkling wine and strawberries may look girly and fruity, but after one glass you'll understand why it's called punch.

Ingredients

- 1 lb strawberries hulled and quartered - about 3 cups
- 2 tbsp sugar
- 1/2 oz lemon juice
- 8 oz limoncello - chilled - caravella - not too sweet
- 2 bottles brut champagne

Instructions

Combine the measured strawberries, sugar, and lemon juice in a blender and blend until smooth.

Strain through a fine-mesh strainer and discard the solids.

Pour the limoncello and strawberry purée into a punch bowl and stir until well combined.

Slowly pour in the cava.

Garnish individual glasses with strawberries, if desired.
